Important information

- The following is general information.
- Competition specific information will be provided on the Submitted images page, after your first image has been submitted.
- Here you can upload images and submit them to a competition.
- Only you can see the names of the files which you upload here
- When you submit an image, you have to choose a competition/category and a title. Only the judges will see the title.
- Note: there is a big chance that the judges don't understand the title unless it is in English. If you don't want to give your image a title, simply press space.
- Always check spelling, the use of special characters, capitals, etc. The title will be shown as you enter it here.
- Always check carefully that you have chosen the right competition and category. We can not move images after the submission deadline.
- For general information and rules we ask you to read the relevant document(s) on the competition website.
- If you have questions not answered here or on the competition website, you can contact the head judge at belgium@photo-competition.be

1. Upload of images

Read the "Important information" and click "Upload of images"

The software is built to handle both online and offline (print) competitions. Offline images are used as references. Therefore, you must always upload images. Images are also used for labels attached to the prints, if relevant, and may be used on certificates.

When you click "Upload of images" the interface for uploads appears.

Click "Browse" to select images in your file-browser or "drag and drop" them onto the grey area.

Upload starts – and images are checked against permitted color profile(s) and for images size in pixels.

After upload the images can be seen in "Uploaded images"

Click Submit to enter a competition or Delete to remove the image

2. Submit Images

A click on Submit brings up a pop-up window:

- Choose competition
- Choose category
- Enter image Titel
(We recommend titles in English for competitions with international judges, as judges may not speak your native language). If you do not want to enter a title press "Spacebar".
- Note: Deadline mentioned is for digital submissions and may be different for submitting Prints.
